Effective May 1, 2000 general education requirements will be defined as those defined by National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). For students graduating from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign as undergraduates these standards are met by the campus-wide general education requirements as mandated by the Urbana Senate.